

Anne Jensen
"Together Again"

Anne Rae Jensen was finally able to join Ralph on February 24, 2012; we know this was the happiest of reunions. Anne was born in Cedar City, Utah on November 13, 1935 to Isora Taylor and William Pucell, the youngest of four children.

She grew up in Cedar City and enjoyed going back to be near the red rocks that held a very special place in her heart. After she graduated from high school, she moved to Salt Lake City and attended LDS Business College, then went to work at the Federal Reserve Bank. She loved to dance and met her future husband Gene Ralph Jensen while dancing at the Terrace.

Anne and Ralph married in 1957 and then moved to Midvale, Utah where they raised a daughter, Shauna and son, Mark. Anne enjoyed walking, golfing, quilting, reading, and spending time with her children and grandchildren. She was an exceptional homemaker and mother and had a great love for animals as well. She held a variety of jobs during her life and especially enjoyed working at Weinstocks and JC Penney.

Anne is survived by her daughter, Shauna (Broker) Hawley and son, Mark (Cynthia) Jensen; as well as four grandchildren, Lauren, Lindsey, Nathan and Erin. She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, Ralph, sister, Cora Mackelprang and brothers, Ralph and Roy Pucell. The family would like to offer sincere thanks to the caring and compassionate staff at Silverado Senior Living for their loving care of Anne during the last several years. We would also like to thank Jules and Jen at CURO hospice who have helped us so much during this difficult time.

To honor Anne, there will be a viewing on Sunday, February 26th, from 6:00-8:00 p.m. at Goff Mortuary, 8090 S. State, and a memorial service on Monday February 27th, beginning at 11:00 a.m., with a viewing from 9:45-10:45 a.m. at Goff Mortuary. Interment, Midvale City Cemetery.
