

Brent L Taylor

Our beloved husband, father, grandfather (papa), son, brother, uncle, and friend Brent L Taylor, age 68, returned to his Heavenly Father at his home in Levan, Utah on December 29th, 2014.

Brent was born on March 19th, 1946 in Salina, UT to George Glen and Effie Novella Madsen Taylor. He was the fifth of five children, and being the youngest was "over-loved" during his childhood.

Brent married Barbara Burr on November 27th, 1964. He later married Pamela Clare Smith on December 24th, 1985 and they were later sealed in the Manti Utah Temple on March 27th, 1993.

Brent graduated from North Sevier High School in 1964 and later continued his education at Weber State University, graduating with a Bachelors degree in Accounting.

Brent was an active member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, serving in various positions including Stake High Counselor, Bishopric 2nd Counselor, YSA Branch Clerk, and most recently serving a full-time mission at the Heber Valley Girls Camp. Brent also served on the Levan Town Council, actively involved in the Levan Main Street Reconstruction Project.

Brent worked in a wide variety of fields in the workplace, including farming, accounting, auditing, construction, sales, and management. He retired from Hilfiker Retaining Walls after working almost 30 years in selling, coordinating, and managing projects around the world as well as serving on the Board of Directors for Visionary Products Inc.

Brent maintained a sincere love for nature, including loving the mountains and outdoors, being an avid hunter, and sustaining his passion for gardening, which was recognized across the state including publications of his novel drip watering system. Perhaps the most important aspect of Brent's gardening was the opportunity to share the "fruits of his labor" with his friends and family, who will truly miss the fresh fruits and vegetables each year.

Of all these defining aspects of Brent's life, there can be no greater love than he had for his family. His life is truly defined by the many acts of service, love, and time spent with his family!

Brent was preceded in death by his parents, George Glen and Effie Novella Madsen Taylor, his sister Cloeen Taylor, and his son Troy L Taylor.

Brent is survived by his loving wife Pamela; his children Marlene (Mike) Swasey, Trent (Dani) Taylor, JC (Annee) Reynolds, George (Kimberlee) Reynolds, Monette (Troy) Christensen, Valerie (Matt) Throckmorton, Arthur Reynolds, Morgan (Caroline) Taylor, and Pamela Joy (Chris) Johnson; 34 grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren; and his siblings Maxine Adams, Mavis Bastian, and Garry Taylor.

Funeral services will be held Monday, January 5th, 2015 at 12:00pm (noon) in the Nephi LDS Stake Center, 351 North 100 West, Nephi, UT. Family and friends may call for viewing Sunday evening from 6:00pm to 8:00pm at the Anderson Funeral Home, 94 West 300 North, Nephi, UT and Monday morning from 10:00am to 11:00am at the Nephi LDS Stake Center. Interment will be in the Levan Town Cemetery after the funeral services.
